

Job Description – Senior Tax Accountant

- Are you a tax professional who thrives on supporting a diverse client base?
- Do you want the opportunity to work in all areas of income tax, not just a select tax specialty?

If this sounds like you, then let's talk!

Since 1972, Cray, Kaiser Ltd. has been serving a diverse client base with a focus on the family-owned or closely-held business. Besides the standard audit, accounting, and tax programs, we offer our clients a full range of business consulting services to assist with the complete life cycle of the business.

Our Core Values

- Education: We believe in lifelong learning. The best way to be successful is to empower yourself with knowledge – and then share it with your team and clients.
- Integrity: We embody accuracy and sincerity through our work and our actions.
- People: We value the person. Everybody on our team has something to offer to the success of our clients and our firm.
- Care: We believe the work we do matters because of the people and the businesses it impacts.
- Trust: We take pride and ownership in our work, elevating us as teammates and as trusted advisors.

We're looking for a seasoned tax professional with experience in direct client contact involving transactional consulting, tax research, and compliance.

What We Offer

- Health, Vision & Dental Plans, Life Insurance, Short & Long-term Disability
- 401(k)
- CPA and CPE reimbursement
- Vacation & Holiday Pay
- Casual dress office environment for non-client-facing days!
- Robust staff development program including internal and external education, a mentoring program with direct partner input, and annual performance appraisals.
- A positive and challenging environment with a people-oriented team!

What You'll Be Doing

- Prepare and review income tax returns.
- Oversee income tax audit and related correspondence.
- Provide ongoing training for staff in order to promote efficient preparation of complex tax returns.
- Research and address technical tax related issues.
- Develop strong working relationships with clients and employees in order to ensure successful execution and delivery of client engagements.

What You'll Need to Be Successful

- Progressive experience working in the tax department of a CPA firm
- CPA designation is preferred, MST a plus
- Strong background in preparation of individual and business returns
- Experience in reviewing returns
- Skilled in performing tax research using various resources
- Ability to manage multiple projects and deadlines
- Strong written and verbal communication skills
- Self-starter and team player
