

Now Hiring: Senior Auditor – Employee Benefits Plans

- Are you looking for variety in your work that serves a diverse client base?
- Do you desire growth in your career?
- Would you like to work with a firm that values you and invests in you?
- Do you have experience auditing employee benefit plans?

If this sounds like you, then we are interested in meeting you!

What You'll Be Doing:

- Running engagements and overseeing daily activity of staff while facilitating assurance engagements, with a focus on employee benefit plans.
- Collaborating, a lot! You'll foster client relationships and manage internal communication to ensure everyone stays up to date. You'll also supervise and train staff throughout the audit process.
- Executing excellence by being the subject matter expert; planning and running audits and reviewing engagements, with support from your team at every step of the way.
- Managing the details and remaining involved in the preparation of financial statements and related documents that will be delivered to clients based upon firm guidelines to meet client deliverables.

What We Offer:

- Competitive base salary plus increased earning potential based on your contribution
- Comprehensive benefits package including medical/dental/vision/life insurance, short-term and long-term disability, PTO and holidays
- 401(k) + profit sharing
- Robust mentoring and staff development program, internal and external education (CPE) with direct partner input, and annual performance appraisals
- CPA and CPE reimbursement
- Casual dress office environment for non-client-facing days
- Flexible work schedule with up to 2 days per week working from home

What You'll Need to Be Successful:

- Progressive experience in public accounting
- Degreed accountant with CPA designation (or actively pursuing CPA)
- Experience auditing employee benefits plans (EBP)
- Ability to travel locally

About Us:
